TIME TO EAT

Lesson Thirty-Two

Objectives: To supplement the past few lessons on meals in Kiribati, this lesson provides you with some vocabulary and useful expressions for use during a meal.

Activities: Memorize the phrases. Then role play a meal situation with the members of your class.

Translation of Phrases:

- Are you hungry?
- Are you thirsty?
- Do you want to eat?
- Do you want to drink?
- Have you had enough?
- Thank you.
- It's delicious.
- I've had enough.
- Would you like a little more?
- Yes, please.
- What is that food?
- to eat
- to eat_____
- to drink
- to drink_____
- to cook
- to cook food
- your meal

Additional Activities:

1. Using the above phrases and vocabulary from preceding lessons, prepare a dialogue around a meal. Include a number of participants if you can.

2. Have a class dinner.

Outside Activities:

What are the Kiribati habits concerning offering food? Do they ask first or merely present it? Is it normal to offer someone a drink when they come to visit? Hot or cold?
